MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

Filsyn Corporation continued to generate income mainly from warehouse rentals and sale of remaining equipment which was sufficient to cover all expenses, hence, there was no need for any outside financing to sustain its operations.

The Company can satisfy its cash requirement for the next 12 months. The Company will not raise additional funds in the next 12 months.

The Company has no product research and developments for the term of the plan.

The Company cannot yet determine if its remaining equipment will be sold within the next 12 months. The Company will not purchase any plant or equipment within the next 12 months.

The Company does not expect any significant changes in the number of employees.

The Company has no plant yet to resume commercial operations. In view of the non-commercial operation of the Company, there are no material key variable and other qualitative and quantitative factors nor performance indicators nor any major risks to consider.

There can be no comparable discussions to assess material changes during the interim period because of the non-commercial operation of the Company.

There are no events that will trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the Company. There are no material off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations) nor any other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons. There are no material commitments for capital expenditures.

There are no seasonal aspects that have material effect to the financial statements.

The main concern of the Company is how to settle the debt issue. Through the years, the Company has continuously explored all available options and finally decided to offer the Sta. Rosa property as Dacion in payment of the entire obligation to The Mortgage Trust Indenture (MTI) Creditors. The Company hopes that there will be soon a closure to this debt issue. The Company has no formal communication with the creditors through the trustees.
